Podgy Smith (@Podgysmith) "Motions" (Video)

Podgy Smith releases a new trippy visual for his single "Motions" from his upcoming project "UNIONVILLEBaby". The Istrux & Samudai produced single is the first visual released in his publishing deal with Sony.

Snooze Daily "Beast & Wolverine" Official Video Ft. Rhymrcka & JalishaSings

The intro begins with the screen sending a warning message about the state of Hip Hop in 2250. Not conforming to the message, Snooze and Rhymrcka are in the lab cooking up a lyrical attack. Their intense bars flow over a gritty backdrop steered by rumbling bass. JalishaSings comes in to ease the destruction with a smooth melodic hook. Watch the video and connect with Snooze Daily below.

Kevin Ross makes a standout achievement with “Sweet Release”, which is currently in the Top 10 position on the Billboard Adult R&B Chart. A complete artist (songwriter, producer, singer, performer) and creator of his own music label, Art Society Music Group (ASMG), Kevin Ross is rising to the forefront of the culture with #1 Billboard entries on the Adult R&B Chart, countless sold-out shows, and more than 100 million streams across platforms. Along the way, he has picked up nominations at the Soul Train Music Awards, NAACP Image Awards, and iHeart Radio Music Awards. Credits / collaborations include artists such as Ty Dolla Sign, Kevin Hart, Ne-Yo, Nicki Minaj, Lil Wayne, Trey Songz, T.I., Tank, Lecrae, and Toni Braxton to name a few. Kevin Ross's video for “Sweet Release” captures the inimitable essence of the modern woman - multi-hyphenate and defined by her endless well of strength, courage, and sensuality. Through intimate vignettes and carefully selected emblems of identity, the music video follows a woman as she lets go of the masks and captures her “sweet release” through sensual moments spent in a serene bubble bath, embracing her loving partner, and softly unraveling the layers of her identity until she is her true uninhibited self. Covering her eyes, she wears a blindfold that highlights words such as “Confident”, “Capable”, “Empowered” and “Queen”. Word by word, she unbinds the blindfold until she transcends home to a deep breath of renewal. By the end of the video, she is seen gazing powerfully and unapologetically into the center frame. Kevin Ross serves as a narrator throughout this process as the story cuts between fragments of Ross playing on a grand piano over a dreamy and hypnotic ocean of clouds, captivating the audience with his smooth, richly decadent vocals and his signature, timeless presence.

Call 911, Bri Carter Is A Forest Fire In New Single 'too much to handle'

New York based Artist, Bri Carter, delivers an upbeat and melodic mixture of pop, alt, hip-hop and hyperpop. Growing up, she never really felt like she fit in but found herself in music and used that as a creative outlet to express herself which allowed her to grow in ways she never could have imagined. In 2022, Bri has released 3 successful singles and her first seven song EP "Me vs. Me". Bri Carter's debut EP is packed with raw emotion and punchy melodies. All seven of the songs are ones to scream out loud, giving the EP an all around feeling of catharsis from start to end. Bri has played live shows in New York and New Jersey, including a "Breaking Sound" performance in NYC, and an upcoming "hello soundroom" performance in Philadelphia at the end of this year.
