History of IKKI

See the reality of Indonesian society life who are shackled by poverty because of kartel strength, erosion of purchasing power due to inflation and economic crisis repeatedly and also in order to create social innovation that inspired by consumer union movement in England, then Drs. Robby Tulus, international cooperative movement figures who concern to the community trigger one consumer union movement as the social innovation to improve the condition of Indonesian society.

Consumer union means bond of unity / cooperation consumers. This organization being accelerated also developed by Asosiasi Kader Sosio Ekonomi Strategis (AKSES) Indonesia the socio-economic movement in Indonesia founded by Robby Tulus.

Consumer Union or CU Mart is a consumer cooperative model developed by multy stakeholder with involve consumer groups, producer and worker in this cooperative management. Consumer Union firstly established in West Kalimantan at 12-12-2012 named "Merion" which is then immediately followed by the establishment another Consumer Union in Bali named "Cunior", in North Maluku with the name "Come-On", in Central Java "Pionir", and followed in Jakarta, Lampung, NTT.

In May 21th 2013, concurrent with the birth of AKSES National organization the first meeting of Consumer Union Movement was held in Bandung, and it was established Induk Koperasi Konsumsi Indonesia (IKKI) or the Main Consumption Cooperative Indonesia which is intended to overshadow the consumer union movement in Indonesia to give subsidiarity services to the development of primary cooperative Consumer Union in Indonesia.
